Presbyterian Women

Did you know Presbyterian Women of Trinity have one of the most comprehensive programs in the denomination? Our theme for 2015-2016 is Refreshing Our Spiritual Journey.

We have several circles that meet at different times and places for women of different ages and stages. Ten times this year our monthly fun and informative Gatherings will provide programs meaningful for our women (and men). Two special Summer activities highlight each June and July. Look for something different the fifth Tuesdays this year as we explore some exciting new opportunities.

The Coordinating Team meets the first Tuesdays, Circles the second Tuesdays, and Gatherings are usually the fourth Tuesdays (the third Tuesdays in November and December). Plan to stop by.

The August 25 Gathering begins at 9:30 am with fellowship and refreshments. A preview of Come to the Waters, the 2015-2016 Bible Study, devotions, music, and plans for the year. Dress code is orange! Experience PW Live for 2-0-1-5!

The Lunch Bunch meets every Monday at noon in room 114 to fellowship, have lunch (bring your own) read and study a book. Look for information about the next book! Open to all women.

You Need to Know . . .

Scott's Spot

It is hard to believe we have been with you for a whole month!

As you probably know, Sue and I came to be with you on June 15th and we plan to remain with you through the end of August. Your new Pastor, Andy, will begin on World Communion Sunday, October 4.

As Bridge Interim, (this is the term for a short-term Interim Pastor) I am considered to be a "temporary shepherd". I like that term because it brings to mind the love of a shepherd for his or her flock. (You might have noticed a shepherd's crook leaning against the chancel wall near the organ. That should remain there until I leave).

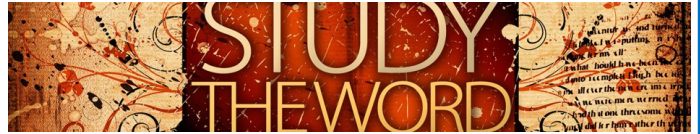

Already, Sue and I have come to know and love many of you. You are an incredible church family.

You may not know that we first came to Trinity on a Sunday morning because we are looking for a church home in our retirement. We will be moving to Clearwater in late August or early September. We were very impressed with the genuine warmth which we experienced. I was impressed with Dr. Joel's message but was disappointed to learn that he was leaving. He and I had attended the second portion of Interim Training together at Montreat some years ago. He suggested I throw my "hat in the ring" and the rest is history.

I am usually in the office on Mondays and Thursdays and would welcome your "stopping by" as you can. It will be a great way for us to get to know one another!

Please pray for travelling mercies for me as I commute to and from Lakeland on Mondays, Thursdays, Fridays, Sundays, and whenever else I am needed. I am told that pastors aren't the best drivers in the world!

8-AUGUST WORSHIP, PRAYER CONCERNS

Meet Andy & Peg Walton

The PNC is so blessed to introduce Trinity's new pastor! Plan to be around for his first worship service on World Communion Sunday, October 4th. You will have several opportunities to meet Andy and Peg as we move forward in ministry together.

Andrew (Andy) Walton is currently in his twelfth year as the pastor of Capitol Hill Presbyterian Church in Washington, DC and his twenty-third as a Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) minister. He was previously Pastor of Forsyth Presbyterian Church in Forsyth, GA for eleven years. Prior to seminary training at Columbia

Theological Seminary and ordination he had a career in the theatre as a director, designer, producer, and actor. He also served as the Director of Arts and Humanities for the city of Lawton, Oklahoma. He and his wife Peg, who is a consultant in workforce development, have been married for nearly 40 years (in Nov). They have two adult daughters, Alison in Baltimore and Jayme in Atlanta. Jayme and her partner Carina have a nine-month old son, Oliver. Completing the Walton family is their lovable rescued setter/retriever mix dog named Wilson.

Pastor Walton was drawn to Trinity Presbyterian Church by the inclusivity, intellectual curiosity, openness to risk, and dedication to service he found in our church's Ministry Information Form (MIF).
